

Below is a painting that Alf made. It is an appropriate epithet for him, a direct descendant of the early Vikings. It brings to mind the first words in an old Swedish Viking song;

“Vredgade hav, vi nu följa Din fräsande bölja, bliv Du vår grav, ingen döljer en Viking som Du!”

“Wrathful sea, we now follow your roaring waves, you’ll be our grave, none can hide a Viking like you!”

His ashes will be carried from the Florida coast with the Gulf Stream to Scandinavian shores, where he will be greeted by his ancient ancestors in Valhalla.
